Chocolate Collection at Easter: Some years ago when asylum seekers first came to Gt. Yarmouth some of us from St. Peter’s were involved in befriending them. At Easter we had a collection of chocolate which was gratefully received as although they are fed and have a roof over their heads for now, their situation is dire with nothing for any luxury.

It is such a small gesture of kindness to make, and it makes such a difference if you know someone cares, I thank God every day that members of my family are not in a similar situation.

Easter Raffle to raise fund for Children’s Pilgrimage to Walsingham in May this year will hold next weekend in our two parishes and Mass centres. Thank you for all your support to the children of our two parishes.
