A big thank you to all the parishioners who contributed to the recent chocolate collection for the asylum seekers which was greatly appreciated. Some parishioners donated money which was used to provide a new pair of suitable shoes for one of those seeking sanctuary as he had been birched on the soles of his feet so really needed new shoes to help alleviate his pain. As everything they have is second hand they are desperate for trainer socks and underpants so if you are able to help out it would be appreciated.

Donated items can be given to any of the priests, Irene Jameison or Joan Donohoe.

Thank you again for your compassion.
